BIG CAVE-IN AT OAKLAND KILLS THREE

Roof of Highway Tunnel Collapses as Brace Is Being Set

THREE OTHERS ARE SERIOUSLY INJURED

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 28 (AP).—Three workers were crushed to death under tons of rock and dirt, three others were injured and five narrowly escaped, in a cave-in of a $3,752,000 highway tunnel bore near here tonight.

Bodies of the three trapped men were said by Stephen D. Bechtel, head of the construction company boring the tunnel, to be under the tons of rock and earth which caved from the north portal.

A crew of 100 men were put to work in short shifts to clear the portal and recover the bodies.

VICTIMS' NAMES

Those killed were named by the construction company as: Roy Houchin, forty, of Berkeley; Howard Davis, twenty-four, of Oakland; and Steve Boljon, forty-four, Oakland.

The injured men were: Frank Brathwaite, Ora W. Mathews and Irvin Edolcott.

Those killed and the injured were part of a crew of eleven men at work strengthening a wood brace when the cave-in occurred about 700 feet from the tunnel entrance.

Without warning, tons of earth broke through the timbering above the heads of the men. Five men leaped to safety.

Prominent among the exhibitors were scores of youngsters who are taking an increasing part in the agricultural and livestock displays.

Thousands of school children, eager to see everything as soon as possible, added to the pleasant bustle of opening day.

FIRE DESTROYS FISH SCHOONER

Crew Forced to Abandon Boat on Alaskan Coast After Three-Hour Battle

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Aug. 28 (AP).—After fighting a fire for three hours, the crew of the halibut schooner Senator was forced to abandon the ship yesterday when the flames swept over the entire craft.

An explosion tore the planking from the schooner and she sank in 100 feet of water in Hetta Inlet on the west coast.

Captain Marcus Ness, owner, and his two-man crew were taken aboard another halibut schooner and brought here. Members of the crew were Tom Anderson and Oscar Brevig.

The Senator had been used for Alaska halibut fishing since 1910.

LONDON, Aug. 28 (AP).—War risk insurance was quoted by Lloyd's at 400 per cent increase today. When rates were sought by Scandinavian shipping they were quoted five shillings a 100 pounds for a semester against war damage, compared with the recent rate of two shillings and six pence for a year, twice that time.

Widespread Investigation Is Being Conducted Into Payments of Income Tax

Federal Department Tracing Unregistered Shares of Large Industries

LARGE SUM MAY BE ADDED TO TREASURY

LONDON, Ont., Aug. 28 (AP).—The Dominion Government is conducting an income tax investigation which may bring the Federal treasury several millions of dollars in tax arrears, it was disclosed here today. The income tax department is probing unregistered shares of large Canadian industries, it was learned. In its investigation the department expects to collect large sums of unpaid income taxes from many of Canada's wealthy men. The probe will go back for a period of from fifteen to twenty years.

FOLLOWS INVESTIGATION

The investigation in this district is being conducted from the office of George Tambling, London district commissioner of income tax. Disclosure of the investigation came shortly after the commission investigating the seven Spencer estates met here today to officially wind up its work.

Commissioner John Cowan was appointed to investigate the estates of the family that pioneered in the tin can business.

RUSSIAN NOTE BEING STUDIED

President Roosevelt Reviews Situation Arising From Red Activities in U.S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP).—President Roosevelt personally reviewed Russia's blum rejection of America's protest against Communist propaganda today, but withheld immediate action.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull and R. Walton Moore, assistant secretary in charge of Soviet affairs, joined the President in a conference on which future relations between the United States and Moscow may hinge.

TAKING TIME

"We are in no great hurry to take action," Moore said on leaving the White House after the brief discussion. "There will be no announcement today," Hull reserved any comment.

State Department officials declined to give any hint of the course which might be pursued. But informed observers believed one logical step might well be a warning that cordial relations would be broken unless the Soviet Government curb future internal activities in the United States by the Third International. It was the recent Moscow congress of the World Communist Group which prompted the American protest.

COMMUNIST ARMY ADVANCES IN CHINA

CHANGSHA, Hunan Province, China, Aug. 28 (AP).—The flood-ravaged countryside of Northwest Hunan Province was exposed to a new menace today as the Communist army and its red leader, Ho Lung, pierced the Government lines and began an advance to the rich centres of Lichow and Changsha.

Roads to this provincial capital are cluttered with refugees fleeing before the red incursion.

Mercury Climbs Up Within Two Points Of Summer Record

OLD Sol yesterday sent the mercury soaring to 88 degrees, a temperature within two degrees of the summer record established on July 13. F. Napier Denison, director of the Dominion Meteorological Observatory on Gonzales Hill, believed, last evening, that the weather would continue fine and warm. He forecast that cooling sea breezes would eventually moderate the high maximum temperatures experienced all week.

STORM TOLL NOT KNOWN

Wrecks Strwn Along Newfoundland Coast—Many Drifting Hulks Reported

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Aug. 28 (AP).—A secret of the sea, Newfoundland's hurricane dead remained uncounted tonight, but reports seeping into St. John's from scattered villages indicated that between forty and fifty lives had been taken by the weekend gale that strewn wholesale death about the island's coastal waters.

With communication services disrupted by the storm, it appeared likely the full toll of the dead would not be known for days. Wrecked ships were scattered all along the island's eastern side; more were adrift at sea without crews, and others, possibly, had been sunk without trace.

NEWS AROUSES FEARS

Of some ships, just enough news had come to hand to arouse fears for the fate of their crews. A nameplate bearing the words "Reginald Anstey" was found, but no other trace of the ship was available.

The Lizzie B was a wreck on the Indian Islands, off Labrador, but there was no word of Capt. William Barber and his crew. The Helen Healy was missing with six men aboard.

More definite news of tragedy came from other ships. The schooner Annie Anita was ashore with the bodies of Captain Walsh and his two young sons, and other six men believed lost.

OTHER KNOWN DEAD

The Walter I. had foundered with Captain Boucher, three brothers and another seaman. Three sailors, including Samuel Franks, of the Lunenburg schooner, Beatrice Beck, had been washed overboard from their ships.

Still unidentified, three derelicts were drifting helplessly around the island's southeast corner. Fairly large craft, they are believed to have carried at least five men apiece.

As the unrelenting search for survivors went on, Nova Scotians felt uneasiness over the plight of seven Lunenburg schooners fishing on the Grand Banks of Newfoundland when the gale swept down.

TYPHOON TAKES TOLL IN JAPAN

Ten Dead, Nine Missing and Thousands of Homes Are Under Water

TOKIO, Aug. 28 (AP).—Ten persons were known dead and nine missing today as a typhoon, having swept over Kyushu and Shikoku Islands off Southern Japan, struck at the industrial heart of the empire.

A storm spread over a wide area on the main island, from Hitokai to Tokyo.

HOUSES UNDER WATER

The rains partly inundated 14,000 houses at Osaka, a seaport on the southern part of the main island, and 9,000 houses at Kobe, police estimated.

Fringes of the typhoon struck Tokyo at dawn, but there was no immediate serious damage.

American Team Leads at Bridge

LONDON, Aug. 28 (AP).—The United States bridge team led its British opponents by 37.80 points tonight at the conclusion of the day's play.

The Americans, Michael Gottlieb and Howard Schenck, are playing a 150-rubber match against a British team headed by S. Hughes.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Aug. 28 (AP).—Gavin Hamilton, fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton, of Burnaby, was fatally injured tonight when the bicycle he was riding skidded and threw him under the wheels of an interurban train at the Cariboo station on the Burnaby-Lake line.

After an extraordinary meeting near the mimic battlefields of Bolzano, Premier Mussolini's Cabinet proclaimed that Italy would set forth the Ethiopian problem "in all its crude reality" before the September 4 session of the League of Nations Council, and defend its policy "to the very last."

IS CHOOSING PROSECUTOR

Federal Cabinet May Name Montreal Lawyer to Commission Post

OTTAWA, Aug. 28 (AP).—Efforts are being made, it was learned today, to obtain James Crankshaw, K.C., Montreal, for the position of public prosecutor under the Trade and Industry Commission. Mr. Crankshaw is a well-known authority on the Criminal Code and a leading Montreal lawyer.

Under the legislation arising from the price spreads report and passed at the last session of Parliament, a commission to regulate trade and industry is to become operative October 1. The act calls for appointment of a public prosecutor at a salary up to $10,000 per annum.

NO ANNOUNCEMENT

It was understood this appointment and that of Lucien Gendron, another Montreal lawyer, to the Dominion Cabinet, were among the matters discussed at today's two sessions of Cabinet council. Prime Minister Bennett made no announcement at the close of this afternoon's late session of Cabinet.

Other than that formalities incidental to the departure of the Dominion's delegation to the League of Nations assembly had been completed. The party will sail Saturday.

HOPE REVIVED FOR LOST MEN

Fires Near Dawson May Be Location of Missing Flyer And Passengers

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Aug. 28 (AP).—Hope for the safety of Pilot Arthur Hines and three passengers, missing since August 19, was revived today when pilots of a passenger plane on a regular Juneau-Fairbanks run reported seeing what appeared to be the smoke of four fires in the shape of a square in the White River country, south of Dawson, Y.T., last night.

Flyers said this would be a probable place for Hines, who was taking his passengers from Dawson to Fairbanks, to be lost.

Murray Hall, Department of Aeronautics inspector, who has been directing the search for the missing persons, left immediately by plane to check this report. He was accompanied by Pilots Joe Barrows and Al Monson.

No report had been received from Hall late today.

Percy Hubbard, flying partner and co-pilot of Hines, who had been searching for his friend so long he could hardly keep his eyes open, was ordered to bed by Hall. He was refused permission to fly his plane until he had some rest.

Hard Surfacing of Mainland Highways Is Being Advanced

Work Being Done Will Give Permanent Surface to 30 Per Cent of Trans-Provincial Road, Minister Announces at Nelson

NELSON, Aug. 28 (AP).—That the hard surfacing programme of the Provincial Department of Public Works is currently in hand will, when completed, bring the mileage of hard surfaced highways between Vancouver and Osoyoos from sixty miles up to 203 miles, and that between Osoyoos and Crow's Nest from twelve miles up to eighty-six miles, was stated here today by Hon. F. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, as he released departmental figures relating to the programme.

All told, the Trans-Provincial Highway had seventy-two miles of hard surface before work started, and after completion of the current projects it will have 289. "If we get another month of the splendid weather we are now having, October will see the projects generally completed," Mr. MacPherson remarked.

Completion of the season's programme in the Vancouver-Osoyoos loop of the Trans-Provincial Highway will see the various sections having the following proportions of hard-surfaced roadway:

Vancouver to Spencea Bridge, ninety-six miles out of 194; Spencea Bridge to Kamloops, twenty-seven miles out of ninety-two; Kamloops to Salmon Arm, nineteen miles out of seventy-three; Salmon Arm to Vernon, fourteen miles out of

POPE PRAYS FOR CONTINUED PEACE

Invites Nurses to Join In Supplications That Italo-Ethiopian Conflict Be Averted

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Aug. 28 (CP-Havas).—Pope Pius XI prayed today that war between Italy and Ethiopia might be averted, and invited 2,000 nurses from twenty-seven nations, whom he addressed, to join in his supplications.

"The mere thought of war makes us tremble," he said. "A war solely for conquest would indeed be an unjust war, surpassing imagination. It would be too sad, too horrible."

"Let us pray to God to aid and give clear sight to those charged with the task of finding a solution assuring the happiness of peoples and social justice to all. Pray with us."

Canadian Council Needed to Check Unfair Practice

R. L. Maitland, K.C., Addresses Canadian Bar Association Annual Meeting With Suggestion to Safeguard Professions—President's Address and Committee Reports Are Received

WINNIPEG, Aug. 28.—Indictment of quacks and unethical persons and corporations in the field of the professions was voiced today by Hon. R. L. Maitland, K.C., Vancouver, in an address to the twenty-first annual convention of the Canadian Bar Association.

Urging action to safeguard the professions from unfair and unethical competition, Mr. Maitland proposed formation of a Dominion-wide council of professions, which would draw its membership from lawyers, doctors, dentists, engineers, etc. Such action, he said, was vital to the welfare of those engaged in the professions.

Opening this morning with 400 lawyers from all parts of Canada in attendance, the convention heard Isaac Pitblado, K.C., Winnipeg, deliver his presidential address and receive reports of committees. The reports will be submitted later to sectional meetings for discussion. The right of the professions to be left alone in their own field was stressed by Mr. Maitland in his address.

There was a very unfair invasion of the professions by the public and the legislatures, he declared. The professions should have the right to practice free from unfair interference and unethical and unscrupulous competition.

Men in the profession—medicine, dentistry, law, etc.—had spent many years of study before becoming qualified to practice, and despite safeguards there was encroachment by qualified persons on the rights of members in their profession to the detriment of the public. Lack of understanding by the public fostered the encroachments, Mr. Maitland said.

"AMBULANCE CHASING" Mr. Maitland mentioned specifically the practice of "ambulance chasing" for suits arising out of accidents and the operations of certain collection agencies. "Ambulance chasing" brought big profits, and "you can usually count upon this kind of profiteering fact amounting to a racket," he said. Action should be taken to prevent the practice, he said.

"Collection agencies have sprung up and they have gone to the length of sending out, under their own signatures, notices and warnings designed to resemble documents issued out of the courts, and to put fear into the hearts of debtors," said Mr. Maitland. Such encroachment was costly to the public and unfair, he said.

The law profession had maintained a high standard, said Mr. Maitland. He believed there should be a greater contact between the professions to advance legislation necessary to give them the protection they deserve and oppose legislation that further encroaches upon the field which the professions now occupy.

UNIFORM LEGISLATION Simplification and clarification of the law with uniformity of legislation and court decisions was urged by Mr. Pitblado, in his presidential address.

Pleading for a "United Canada," Mr. Pitblado frowned upon sectionalism, sectarianism and petty provincial jealousies and urged lawyers to watch closely the "great economic changes taking place in our body politic."

"New laws and regulations of a drastic character appear every day," the president told the opening session of the convention, which is attended by noted lawyers from all parts of the Dominion. All thoughtful leaders of the Bar should give attention to the changes, he said.

liven living a normal life in a world of turmoil.

Submitting the report of the committee on international law, O. M. Biggar, K.C., Ottawa, chairman, pointed out after reviewing the world conditions that:

"This is the state of the world in which the possibility of an ordinary citizen living a normal and orderly life depends as never before upon the maintenance by his government of peaceful and orderly relations with foreign governments and people."

The gloomy account of the prospects for the maintenance of international order given in the committee's report to the last annual meeting has been justified by events of the year under review, the report said.

EXCHEQUER COURT Broadening of the jurisdiction of the Exchequer Court of Canada was urged in the report of the committee on administration of justice.

The report of the committee declared: "In view of the increasing tendency of the Government to enter the business field in competition with private enterprise, the committee is of the opinion that the jurisdiction of the Exchequer Court should be broadened and provisions as to petitions of right brought into harmony with present day conditions."

"To this end the committee recommends that a representative committee be named immediately with instructions to consider the matter, formulate appropriate legislation and report to the next mid-Winter meeting of the general council."

TO HAVE POWER READY TO SELL Beauharnois Company Going Ahead With Plans Under Agreement

MONTREAL, Aug. 29 (P).—In a dispatch from its Ottawa correspondent The Gazette today states, in part:

To make its legal position virtually impregnable, the Beauharnois Light, Heat & Power Company, through its general manager, R. A. C. Henry, yesterday met Hon. Dr. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals, and officials of his department, preparatory to formally applying for Federal consent to taking on October 1 next, 53,000 cubic second feet, the maximum flow of water from the St. Lawrence River, as provided in the agreement.

This maximum flow will be necessary to develop the 196,000 horsepower which the company is under contract to deliver to the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission on October 1 of this year.

The policy of the Beauharnois company is understood to be that it desires to be in a position to deliver on October 1 the power stipulated in the contract with the Ontario commission, even though Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn has already made it known that unless and until there was a downward revision of the contracts held by the Quebec power companies with the Ontario commission the latter would not accept delivery of any power.

CANDIDATE TO BE NOMINATED

Nomination of a candidate for election in Victoria under the banner of the Reconstruction party will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the party headquarters on Yates Street.

The decision will be arrived at by open ballot of all holders of membership cards in the Stevens' party, such cards being available to those prepared to pledge their support of the party's reconstruction programme.

Several names are under consideration and a recommendation from the nominating committee will be laid before the meeting. Other nominations may be submitted from the floor, provided that the consent of persons named be first secured. Before final ratification of the nomination is made the candidate must be approved by the party's Dominion executive.

THREE MONKEYS CAPTURED DRUNK

One Dies of Alcoholism and Use of Intoxicants in Chase to Be Discontinued

MASSAPEQUA, N.Y., Aug. 28 (P).—The use of whisky as a lure for Frank "Bring-Em-Back-Alive" Buck's escaped monkeys was discarded today because one of the animals drank too much and died of acute alcoholism.

Nothing has affected me for a long time so much as the death of this little fellow," lamented T. A. Loveland, Buck's associate in the wild animal business.

"Had I known this would happen, we would never have employed intoxicants to capture the monkeys."

The monkey was one of three captured, dead drunk, after they had guzzled whisky from containers placed in the woods last night around Buck's zoo.

About a dozen monkeys are still at large of the 175 which escaped from the zoo last week.

MILL TO FALL BACK ON CITY

Worst Factory Is in Default $26,709 for Interest And Insurance

B.C. Worst Mills, Limited, property is expected to fall back upon the city this week through a final order of foreclosure. The company is in default $26,709 to the city, of which $21,875 is for unpaid interest, $4,834 for insurance and $231 for unpaid taxes.

Ratepayers in 1928 agreed by vote to have the city guarantee a mill bond issue of $125,000 plus interest set up to five per cent. The company was to pay interest to the city and sinking fund instalments, which would eventually retire the debt. Three years ago payments ceased.

Bonds on the property are of the twenty-five-year variety, non-callable, and according to present indications the city will have to meet interest payments for eighteen years and then refund the principal.

FIND BODY OF GUNMAN

Henchman of Dillinger Was Killed More Than Year Ago, Agents Believe

OSWEGO, Ill., Aug. 28 (P).—The ghostly career of John Hamilton, machine gunner and one of the most vicious of the Dillinger gang in life, ended today with the finding of his body in a shallow grave bordering a gravel pit near here.

Three Federal agents found the outlaw's mouldering remains, concluding a hunt which had been intensified after Hamilton, with John Dillinger and other members of the mob, shot their way out of a Government trap at the Little Bohemia resort in Wisconsin, April 22, 1934, killing two men, one a Federal agent.

FATALLY WOUNDED Participant in half a dozen bank robberies with the Dillinger gang, Hamilton, who was born in the Sault Ste. Marie district of Ontario, was believed to have been fatally wounded, April 23, 1934, near South St. Paul, Minn., by officers attempting to track down the gang after the Little Bohemia foray.

No bullet wounds were apparent in a cursory examination of the body. The Federal agents said they identified the corpse as Hamilton's from the teeth.

GRAVE HASTILY DUG The makeshift grave apparently was hastily dug. It was a few feet from a heavily-travelled road. It appeared the body had been swiftly dragged from an automobile and interred.

The latest achievement of the Federal man hunters laid to rest Hamilton "ghost" rumors which had plagued officers for months.

Beginning their return trip, the tour members leave for Vancouver this afternoon.

The tour was designed to provide the visitors with a real insight into and industrial life, as well as a number of the country's scenic spots. On the way East they will visit the Experimental Station at Summerland.

BRIG.-GEN. CROSBIE Of special interest in the party is Brig.-General J. S. Crosbie, formerly of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, and the last Englishman to leave Arnhem in 1919, after serving with the British Army there for thirteen months.

General Crosbie declared he was tremendously impressed with what he had seen in Canada. He hopes to return soon. Although a native of Kerry County, Ireland, he left the Emerald Isle during the disturbances after the Great War and now resides at Rilconquhar, Fife, Scotland. He is chairman of the education board in Fife, as well as being a councillor.

OTHER MEMBERS

Other members of the party, conducted by C. A. Gow, of Glasgow, Scotland, are: Mrs. J. S. Crosbie and Miss Crosbie; Mr. D. Barham and Mrs. Barham, of Kent; Mr. B. S. C. Barker and Mrs. Barker, of Southport; Mr. W. E. Bridson, of Liverpool; Mrs. Turton, Mrs. G. M. Brundell, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gruggen, of Sussex; J. Hancock, of Birmingham; Mr. C. C. McCartney, of Stretton; Miss M. S. Serjantson, of London; Miss M. L. Trachair, of Cornwall; Mr. H. Tyley, of Somerset; Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse, of Monmouth; Madame H. de Vallet, of Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Vickerman, of Yorkshire; Miss Bush, of Sussex, and Misses E. and W. Green, of Luton.

HARD SURFACING OF MAINLAND HIGHWAYS

EASTERN PORTION

In the Osoyoos-Crows Nest loop the proportions of hard surface will be as follows: Osoyoos to Trail, seventeen miles out of forty-seven; Nelson to Cranbrook, eighteen miles out of 145; Cranbrook to Crows Nest, twenty-six miles out of ninety-seven.

The western loop will have 203 miles of hard surface out of its whole road mileage of 565 miles, or 36 per cent. The eastern loop will have eighty-six miles of hard surface out of its total road mileage of 435 miles, or 19.7 per cent. On the whole mileage from Vancouver to Crows Nest, 840 miles, the hard-surfaced portion, 289 miles, will represent a proportion of 34.7 per cent.

CANNERIES FOUND ACTIVE UP COAST

On return from a combined business and pleasure trip up the West Coast of Vancouver Island, during which they visited all canneries, F. M. Brown, Vancouver, second vice-president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and Hugh Dalton, Vancouver, secretary of the British Columbia division of the organization, stated at the Empress Hotel, last night, that they found everything satisfactory.

All canneries were busy canning pilchard, of which there had been a good run this year, the officials stated. The people of the West Coast seemed optimistic and happy. Mr. Brown and Mr. Dalton explained.

BECOME ILL TO MEET PHYSICIAN

Dr. Dafoe Finds Visitors Employing New Dodge to Gain Interview

CALLANDER, Ont., Aug. 28 (C)—Good-natured Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe wondered tonight just how he would contend with a new dodge invented by visitors to Callander intent on meeting the famous physician to the Dionne quintuplets, as well as the celebrated youngsters themselves.

Anyone can see the babies in their twice-daily appearances, but Dr. Dafoe finds it impossible to meet more than a few of the thousands who come here each week to see Annette, Yvonne, Cecile, Emilie and Marie, fifteen months old today.

DEVELOP AILMENTS Now the tourists have discovered a way of meeting Dr. Dafoe and claiming him as their own physician. And there doesn't seem anything the doctor can do about it. As they approach Callander, someone in the party develops a previously undiagnosed ailment and, as Dr. Dafoe is a physician, there is nothing more natural than that they should call on him for advice.

The physician smiles wryly about it, but the persistent hero worshipers have their way. Some really have chronic ailments and go away from Callander with a valued prescription in the famous physician's handwriting.

IN EXCELLENT HEALTH He said today as the quintuplets completed their fifteenth month of life—they were born May 28, 1934—that they had never been in better health. They all gained in weight during the past month, although Cecile advanced only one ounce. The heat affects her more than Emilie, who had gained 12 1/2 ounces, and her other sisters.

PLAN TO INVADE DOMINION FIELD

William Abernethy, leader of the party, did not contest a seat at the election, but one of his successful candidates will step aside for him, permitting him to become Premier of the province. His Cabinet will not be announced until Saturday, after a trip to Edmonton to interview Lieutenant-Governor Walsh and Premier Reid, who already has resigned office. He left for Edmonton tonight.

CONFIDENCE VOTE

The caucus early voted confidence in Abernethy, gave him blanket authority to choose his Cabinet and his choice of any seat in the province for himself. He had not decided tonight where he would run, the decision resting until his Cabinet had been selected.

Meanwhile, Alberta bonds dropped in price on Canadian, New York and London markets, but it was not taken as a serious blow at the new Government. A survey here showed there had been no concerted selling of Alberta bonds which might show a lack of confidence in the financial stability of the Abernethy administration and its policies.

Although Major C. H. Douglas, founder of Social Credit, announced in London he would leave for Alberta on September 14, he probably will be advised to cancel his reservations. The caucus instructed Abernethy to invite Douglas here when it was convenient to the Cabinet, and this may not be for weeks. Douglas has a two-year contract with the Alberta Government as financial adviser.

MAKES NO COMMENT

OTTAWA, Aug. 28 (C)—Hon. H. H. Stevens was disinclined tonight to comment on the decision today at Calgary of the Abernethy Social Credit Party not to align itself with the Stevens Reconstructionists.

"The Abernethy Social Credit Party has a perfect right to take any course it may choose, and I am not offering any observation," the Reconstructionist leader said.

Mr. Gendron may enter the Cabinet as Minister of Marine, now vacant, or may become Solicitor-General if the incumbent of the portfolio, Hon. Maurice Dupre, is transferred to the Department of Marine, a change frequently rumored.

NOT REORGANIZATION

Mr. Bennett said today he had been endeavoring to fill the vacancies in his Cabinet as they occurred, but that the recent changes could not be looked upon as a Cabinet reorganization. No successor has been secured for Finance Minister Rhodes, who has been appointed to the Senate.

Canada's housing loan legislation, passed at the last session of Parliament, is now in operation and the Department of Finance will, in a few days, issue a list of approved lending companies with whom the public may do business under the act. In the meantime, prospective borrowers throughout Canada have swamped lending institutions with applications for benefits under the act.

WITH LOAN COMPANIES

Those desiring to build residences with the aid of loans negotiated under this plan will deal exclusively with lending companies, who will in turn negotiate the loan jointly with the Department of Finance under terms of contracts which are now being negotiated and are largely completed.

The act contemplates initial use of $10,000,000 for these loans. Utilization of the entire initial appropriation made by the Government for this purpose would mean building projects valued at $50,000,000.

ALBERTA VICTORY SURPRISES NORTH

The success of the Social Credit party in the recent Alberta election came as a distinct surprise to the Peace River district. G. D. Johnston, news editor of The Peace River Record, weekly publication, stated yesterday on a visit to Victoria.

Mr. Johnston is one of the leading young men of Peace River and is only in his early twenties. Wheat crops in the northern section of Peace River will be heavy this year, but late the visitor stated. In the south, however, frost recently did great damage.

FACTS AND PROPAGANDA

Mr. Mackenzie King, from the character of his campaign utterances, indicates his belief that Canada has done little or nothing to maintain her trade during the years of depression. He closes his eyes to most that has happened and is concerned only with painting imaginative pictures of what the Liberals would be able to accomplish in office. It is a pity that absolute candor and party propaganda do not go hand in hand. If they did, the Liberal leader would at least give credit to his country for the manner in which its people have weathered the depression and the aid that has been given in this particular by the policies of the Government now in power. He might, for instance, quote from the analysis of world trade figures prepared by the statistical bureau of the League of Nations. Here are some excerpts:

1. That during the past four years of depression Canada's record in maintaining her foreign commerce has been surpassed by only one of the great world-trading nations, namely, Japan.
2. That while world exports in the past four years have declined 57.1 per cent, on a gold dollar basis, Canada's exports on the same basis declined by but 49.9 per cent.
3. That whereas Canada's exports, on a gold dollar basis, have shrunk by 49.9 per cent, those of the United States have diminished by 66.9 per cent, of the United Kingdom by 57.2 per cent, of Germany by 65.8 per cent, of France by 58.4 per cent, of Italy by 58.1 per cent.
4. That, in volume of goods, apart from gold dollar values, Canada contributed 3.71 per cent of the total world exports in 1929 and 3.99 per cent of the total world exports in 1934.

The foregoing summary, so far as trade is concerned, is a complete answer to Mr. Mackenzie King's diatribes. His tirade in this respect is a somewhat ungratified woe and indicates that the Canadian people and their ability to develop their resources are in a hopeless state without the guidance of a Liberal Government at Ottawa. This, of course, is the veriest poppycock. Canada has done marvellously well because it is Canada and because her people are what they are. She is in the van of trade because she is blessed with things that the world needs. Her present Government, particularly through the negotiation of the Ottawa Trade Agreements, has encouraged that trade. The Liberals could have done no better, and it must always be remembered that it was under Liberalism that the crash came in 1929.

A POLITICAL BANK

If Premier Hepburn of Ontario voices the views of Mr. Mackenzie King in the latter's belief that the Bank of Canada should be under political control, then it is obvious what kind of pressure will be brought to bear by politicians on a nationally-owned and controlled central bank. It will become the plaything of ill-informed politicians who are in a hurry. A central bank controlled by politicians would have an outlook that would be political rather than financial. It would be regarded simply as an institution to supply governments with money for the exercise of spendthrift zeal. The situation, as it could well be envisaged, is summed up by The Financial Post of Toronto, which says:

"It is no function of a central bank under any circumstances to provide permanent financing for any government. And any central bank which purchased securities for which an immediate, ready market had not been demonstrated, would be derelict in the performance of its functions. Absolute liquidity must be the essence of every investment made by a central bank, otherwise it could not operate in the major sphere of helping to stabilize prices at home and exchanges abroad. But if the Bank of Canada was government-owned it would constantly be subjected to political pressure. It would be asked to loan money to provinces which had lost or injured their credit; to finance long term developments of an unsound nature; to manage its affairs to meet the needs of opportunist politicians instead of to give conscious control to the country's monetary policies."

THE QUETTA EARTHQUAKE

According to the report of Mr. W. D. West, of the Geological Survey of India, the Quetta earthquake of May 11 last, was from the standpoint of mortality, the worst that has visited India in historic times. Thirty thousand people perished, as compared with 20,000 in the Kangra earthquake of 1905. The latter extended over 1,900 square miles, whereas that at Quetta embraced 300,000 square miles. A feature of the Quetta earthquake was its short duration; it lasted less than half a minute. The intensity of the shock was very great, throwing the seismograph at Calcutta, 1,400 miles away, out of adjustment.

The geological finding is that the Quetta earthquake had no connection with volcanic action. Its causes are explained by Mr. West as follows: "The hills of Baluchistan have been folded by a compression coming from the north-west. The softer rocks have been folded and pushed southeastwards towards the rest of India. In the way that a person might push a cloth on a table horizontally, causing the cloth to pucker up into long folds in front of the hand. Between Peshawar and Karachi the alignment of the mountains is not a straight line, but is abruptly disturbed by a marked re-entrant angle running up through Sibi to Quetta. It almost appears as though some obstacle were holding up the free movement of the mountain folds towards the southeast. It may be that a wedge-like promontory of Peninsular India extends up towards Sibi beneath the alluvial covering, and is acting as an obstacle to the free movement of the mountain folds, causing this re-entrant angle. If this suggestion is correct, then the rocks at the apex of this angle must be in a condition of great strain; and it is possibly the sudden yielding of the rocks as a result of this strain which causes the numerous earthquakes which visit this part of Baluchistan."

THE FIFTH SENSE

The Smell Society, formed in England, is designed to restore the sense of smell, so that man in this respect may at least hold his own with the lower animals. There are those who will recall Mr. G. K. Chesterton's dog which deplored the "noselessness of men." It is different with women. Their noses are far keener, far more sensitive than those of males. This, however, applies only in cases where tobacco is not affected, for the heavy smoker more than any other individual finds the olfactory nerve dulled. It would seem that if the Smell Society is to get anywhere it must link its energies with an anti-tobacco campaign.

There is a general understanding that sensibility to smells is diminishing. Perhaps this is because in human beings it is only rarely necessary as a means of self-protection. Even where there is a gas leakage, the more democratic way seems to be to light a match instead of relying on the nose. There are times when on odor or a perfume has a peculiar appeal. Writers who are travelers as well frequently make a point of the specific odor attached to certain cities. The Orient is supposed to have aavor peculiarly its own, as is London, New York, Paris and Buenos Ayres. It is for a highly-developed sense of recognition of smells that the Smell Society has been formed. It is not known how it is going about its work. Perhaps it is an advertising scheme to give a fillip to the perfumery industry; perhaps it will make men weather prophets by recognition of the smells of thunder and rain, and perhaps they will be able to shudder when an earthquake is about to take place. Possibly the Smell Society will make the detection of crime easier by every individual being trained with the keenness for scents that belongs to the bloodhound. The society might well begin its work by giving names to the more familiar smells now nameless.

DOMINION AUTONOMY

The controversies which have taken place in South Africa during the last few years are, in fact, obsolete. The divorce of a Dominion governor-general from the English Parliament was recognized nearly ten years ago. In 1922 the Irish Free State even succeeded in establishing the constitutional right of a Dominion Government to secure the removal from office of a governor-general who was persona non grata with the government. Half a generation ago the question of British nationality, which is a subject of some people today, was disposed of by the Canadian Government, which deemed all its citizens to be "Canadian." The Canadian Government was the first to appoint overseas representatives, and the Imperial Conference of 1926 formally approved and the outcry which greeted the establishment of a Ministry of External Affairs in South Africa, on the ground that it implied a further weakening of the bonds of the Empire, seemed to be made in ignorance of the fact that a similar step was taken by Canada as long ago as 1900—Maritzburg Natal Witness.

"A GREAT IMPERIAL THINKER"

"From being a leader on the smallest of stages, General Smuts, in the eyes of the world, has become a great Imperial thinker and a man whose word counts not only with the British peoples, but far abroad in the world outside." To supplement that statement we would add that there is no room for any doubt that General Smuts could, if he wished, command the highest honors, great fame and abundant wealth in several spheres where his opportunities of exerting a tranquilizing influence on international politics would be as vast as they were in the past. Beneficially utilized, but there is also no room for any doubt that his greatest interests and most abiding affections are centred in South Africa, or that he will continue to serve his native land with the same self-effacement and broad-minded tolerance that have been, on the whole, his chief characteristics through years of storm and sunshine—Johannesburg Times.

FAITH'S ALCHEMY

Life crowds and pushes us along
With little time for prayer or song.
The years slip unrelenting by,
While dreams of aspiration die.
But still above the clouds that cling
We may arise on Faith's strong wing.
Where Peace will touch the eyes of pain
And wither Hope will bloom again.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.
And if I laugh at any mortal thing,
That that I may not weep.—Byron.

President Roosevelt said when introducing his national recovery campaign that if the plan did not succeed he would try something else. The farmers of Alberta formed a political party of their very own, made a government out of it, which did not succeed, so they are trying something else. The United Farmers of Ontario did the same thing several years ago. Disastrous to the old or the orthodox political parties, they became neither Grit nor Tory, they became class conscious, elected a majority of farmers to the Legislature, and the result was the Drury Government, the most lamentable failure in the list of many class-conscious political movements.

The career of the Drury Government proved that farmers, like all the rest of us, are merely human, but the frailties of the members of the Drury Government were made conspicuous by the fact that one of the members of that Government ended his political career in jail. Nothing like that has happened to Governments composed of politicians of the orthodox political school—not that such a consummation need not occasionally have been warranted. Ontario has re-elected, and there is a Government in the province which is more, or less orthodox, and it is led by a farmer.

The fact has been stated in verse that the farmer feeds us all. The truth might be proclaimed in rhyme that the farmer fools us all. The farmers of Alberta have fooled all the people of the rest of Canada, but the embattled farmers of Alberta are not led by one of their own class who has promised to lead them into that undiscovered country which is literally flowing with milk and honey, like another promised land. The leader, who is going to lead the people into the Never, Never Land which exists only in the imagination, is a person who has been teaching the young idea how to shoot, and has persuaded the parents of the young people of the province that they could shoot too, and that they should shoot at a shining mark. Mr. Aberhart has not attained the dignity of a professor of a university, but he has founded a school which many of his followers believe will extend its bounds beyond narrow provincial limits, and become universal. We see by the papers, which sometimes print facts, that the fame of Social Credit has spread into England, and that a corps of green shirts has been formed for the purpose of propagating the new faith in that politically and economically pagan or heathen country.

As most of the political and economic mistakes which have been made in America may be attributed to the advice of learned professors, for the sake of convenience we shall dignify Mr. Aberhart with the title of a learned professor. Learned professors of the old school, like economists of the same school, usually appealed to the reason rather than to the emotions of their students. Professor Aberhart has not made the mistake we generally make in attributing to the farmers' hard heads and withered emotions. His experience as an evangelist has taught him that the farmers are extremely susceptible to appeals to the heart rather than to the head. Billy Sunday knew that fact well, and Amy Semple MacPherson knew it better; but the religious soil of rural Canada had been cropped too often by foreign evangelists, and it was all "worked out."

Brother Bill and Sister Amy are out of the picture, and the astute professor is in the middle of it. The new evangel appeals to the cupidity as well as to the credulity of the farmer. The old Heaven is at least the length of a life's journey away. A new earth may be just around the corner, certainly not a light year and a half in the distance, but merely a solar year and a half off. The learned professor says his Government is not only going to be a common man's government. It is going to be a Government based upon that hitherto abstract thing, an exact political science.

Most of us in our ignorance or innocence believed that Canada was never to be blessed or afflicted with a "friendship." Yet Canada is faced to face with a dictator. The professor has a dictator. He, Philadelphia, was critically hurt, when a plane piloted by Crane crashed near the Rhode Island State Airport to-day. Crane died at St. Joseph's Hospital.

PILOT KILLED IN CRASH
PROVIDENCE, R.I., Aug. 28.—Joshua Crane, Jr., well-known New England aviator, was fatally injured, and Arthur Howe, Philadelphia, was critically hurt, when a plane piloted by Crane crashed near the Rhode Island State Airport to-day. Crane died at St. Joseph's Hospital.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY
From The Daily British Columbia of August 29, 1935.
N.W. High School—Five of the New Westminster High School pupils went up for examination for matriculation and the title of associate in art of McGill University, and the results were as follows: William J. Major will enter the class for the higher education; Frederick Howard and Thomas R. McInnes, with matriculation and passed for the title of associate in art of McGill University. The other three pupils, who have not secured tickets should do so this morning as there are very few seats left.

The Kildare Cement Co.—A street many people were surprised on calling at Messrs. J. B. Ferguson & Co.'s yesterday morning to find nearly all the reserved seats taken. The sale was a record of anything in this city before, showing that Victorians are willing to patronize a good performance when they have an opportunity. Those who have not secured tickets should do so this morning as there are very few seats left.

Photographed New Bridge—Mr. Maynard has photographed the handsome and substantial new bridge just erected across the arm at Point Ellice. The picture is a faithful representation of the admirable structure. Those who have not seen the bridge should look at the photo.

THREE MARKET BOARDS COMING

Action Expected Shortly on Interior Vegetables and Coast Halibut

Three new Provincial marketing boards are currently under consideration, action in two cases being expected in a short time now. It was expected yesterday at the Legislature Buildings, a British Columbia scheme to control Interior vegetables, and a British Columbia scheme to control coast halibut, both supplemental of Federal authority already secured, are the two schemes expected to go ahead almost at once. A British Columbia scheme to augment Federal powers in respect to the control of small fruits and rhubarb has been applied for, but as the crops are finished for this year, action on this application may not be taken until sometime next Spring, it is expected.

Odd Observations
Holidays are not always what they might be. Fred Melville returned from a painfully sun-burned back to his vacation. Happy thought for husbands—when winter comes there won't be any more grass to cut and lawns to laboriously water. Magnus wants to know why the entomologist who imported flies to bump off earwigs couldn't procure some filled with the milk of human kindness and then turn them loose upon human beings. Who is the brains behind the striking longhorns? Has he a licence to practice in British Columbia? Wonder how the coffee plantation recruiting for Kenya Colony is going. Aubrey? Fun of other days. The British Colonist of January 12, 1866, carries this item: "At the ball, which came off at the Nanaimo Institute on Monday evening, some individual took was trouble of sprinkling the floor well with Cayenne pepper, to the serious annoyance of dancers."—G.B.

CRICKET WEEK

Sir,—May we, through the medium of your newspaper, convey our thanks and appreciation to the many players who have contributed to the success of the Cricket Week. We are indebted to the ladies, who so capably attended to the refreshments, and to those who generously helped to supply them. To the visiting teams from Upland and the Mainland, in recollection of their sporting games, and to all those who in any way rendered assistance on this occasion. We would also express our appreciation for the company of the many spectators who daily visited the cricket matches and registered their interest in the greatest of British sports. E. W. PATTON, Fancourt, Upland, Victoria, B.C., August 26, 1935.

ROAD HOGS

Sir,—In looking through the Driving Code issued by the Minister of Transport, I find the following: "A copy of the code has been delivered by the Postoffice to every household in the country—14,000,000 homes." Whether its spirit of sweet reasonableness will get through the hide of the road hog remains to be seen. Any driver of a car passing over some road, for instance, the West Saanich Road, any day of the week can meet with at least one road hog on his trip. One day last week I met with at least two. One was a four-foot cordwood, double width, which measured nine feet eight inches across, and which, after scooting down a hill, rounded a corner on an asphalt road not more than sixteen feet wide in the centre of the road, leaving about three feet on either side for a car to pass. The rate of speed of the car was traveling prevented the driver taking the proper course or the load being shot off. I was compelled to take to the ditch or be smashed up.

The other was a milk delivery, driven by a young lad with a companion down Ribbet's Hill at such a speed that he was forced right across the bend at the bottom, nearly to a point of capering. A milk truck can be seen most any day traveling down Oak Bay Avenue with a load of at least four or five moderate estimates of forty-five miles an hour. An empty truck, providing the driver's brains and brakes were in good order, traveling at forty miles per hour requires 148 feet in which to pull up; if heavily loaded, probably 250 feet to stop. What price the life of a child running off? To lodge a complaint, a person is not believed unless he has a witness. Here's a line for improvement, if only a distinguishing mark for those convicted of driving to the common danger.

SOCIAL CREDIT

Sir,—Traitors are oft-times words which make us picture that which, metrically, cannot be done. The writer wishes it definitely understood that he does not take sides in the matter of Social Credit economics. That is, he does not belong to any particular sponsoring or opposing school of economic teaching. Also the writer has no particular reason which persuades him to fall down and worship at the feet of economic autocrats. Especially where such hard-working and valuable data and facts gatherers have their data and their facts interpreted in meliorist terms, which indicate definite impossibility. Yours truly has stood in long time periods, economic growth must conform to growth-rate factors which will not accelerate growth to enormity. Inspection of the statement of Professor Moulton, as interpreted by Mr. Jull in your paper dated August 24, 1935, indicates that, were the Moulton statement put into practice, as Mr. Jull for Social Credit?—would have it, we would quickly reach enormities in growth which would be absurd, because of definite physical impossibilities. Assume Mr. Jull's figures to be correct, respecting the possibilities of production in the United States. Let them be made operative—approximations will do, since these would be below the statement of exactitude. Then, according to the statement of Mr. Jull, total possible production for a number of years prior to 1929 could have been stated in dollars as—annually—$100,000,000,000.

To simplify figures, let population be 125,000,000, and let one person in five earn for all, then there were total earners 25,000,000. If the total income were equally divided annually, among the earners, each earner would have had an annual income approximately $4,761.91, but, understanding Mr. Jull does not advocate equal division of the national income, let us assume 20 per cent of the population receives three times what would be the average income, if total income were equally divided. This income group would total in number 4,200,000, and their total income would be $60,000,000,000. Let the balance of national income approximate $40,000,000,000, this to be divided so that average income per balance of 16,800,000 earners minimum would be $2,381.42. Now let each earner (the total 21,000,000 of them) spend this minimum upon personal comforts, that is, annually depreciable goods and the total expenditure would approximate $48,740,820,000. This deducted from total national income, $100,000,000,000, leaves a gross balance of $51,259,180,000.

Of this, let 30 per cent be used to pay the cost of depreciation of roads, other capital goods and obsolescence charges, annually $15,378,084,000. Net balance after all charges, $35,871,096,000. Of this let 50 per cent go for investment abroad, $17,935,548,000, which leaves for reinvestment at home the amount of net growth, $17,935,548,000. This represents a growth rate factor of nearly 18 per cent annually, and, of course, the growth is absurd because of definite impossibilities. Doubt it? Well try 18 per cent compounded interest annually for 100 years. The result will simulate the proposition set by Mr. Jull's interpretation of the statement of Professor H. Moulton and associates.

The fault, dear reader is not in the facts but in our muddled words, that we are underlings.

ITALO-THIOPAN CRISIS

Sir,—Referring to the letter by N. de Bertrand Lugin in your issue of Friday, the 23rd instant, regarding the Italo-Ethiopian crisis and the power of the Anglican Church, I am sure we are in accord with the statements and sentiments expressed as to the value of prayer at all times. It is regretted that during the service your correspondent attended no special prayers were offered that war might be averted between Italy and Ethiopia, but would like to draw attention to the fact that with regard to the services at St. John's Anglican Church, special prayers have been offered by our rector, Rev. Canon Chadwick, each Sunday since relations have become strained between the two countries referred to. ROBERT E. BURNS,

Sir,—I have read with interest the rebuke administered by Mr. H. P. Wansby in his letter in The Colonist to Mr. R. H. Hawtry, financial secretary to H.M. Treasury; Mr. Reginald McKenna, former Chancellor of the Exchequer and now chairman of the Midland Bank, and to Dr. Carl Snyder, statistical economist of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, for their views on monetary policy and mechanism. Perhaps it is as Mr. Wansby suggests that nobody but a "general public accountant" (whatever that is) should be allowed to deal with such matters in public. Perhaps it is the lack of such training in general public accountancy (whatever that is) that has led Messrs. Hawtry, McKenna and Snyder on astray on a point or two. Government do not, as suggested by him, "create money," except when they are issuing Treasury notes or other wise following that evil practice called by all good citizens "inflation." Only banks create money. Mr. Wansby fears about "variations" in debits and credits, heavy me cold, but I warm up slightly when he discourses, however obscurely, the lack of purchasing power in the hands of the people. But Mr. Wansby need not worry about money lying "dormant" in banks when nobody borrows it. When money in a bank is unloaned it does not lie around getting mouldy, it goes quickly out to exist. And when someone comes to borrow, the banks never lend any of the money they have on deposit, they just create a new deposit, a clear addition to the total of money in existence, and never reduce any deposit by so much as a penny.

Since Mr. Wansby does not trust Messrs. Hawtry, McKenna and Snyder in money matters, he may find valuable instruction in the "Treatise on Money" by L. M. Keynes, but I must warn him that regretfully Mr. Keynes is not a general public accountant. And if Mr. Wansby wishes to know what chartered accountants think about

FIVE-HOUR FIRE DESTROYS BARN

Large Building and Hay, Owned by E. H. Street and Valued at $450, Burned

Despite a five-hour fight by Saanich firemen yesterday afternoon, fire destroyed a barn and a large amount of hay on Beckwith Street, near North Saanich Road. The barn, valued at $350, and the hay, valued at $100, were owned by E. H. Street, firemen reported.

The fire was believed to have started in the nearby bush and spread to Mr. Street's property. A small shack, owned by a Chinese, was also destroyed, and between three and four acres of grass and bush burned over.

Firemen used two engines, an auxiliary pump and 2,800 feet of hose to combat the flames.

FIREBUGS IN DENVER ARE STILL ACTIVE

Despite Confession of Youth As Incendiary More Outbreaks Occur

POLICE PATROLING ALL BIG BUILDINGS

DENVER, Aug. 28 (P).—Incendiarism in Denver flamed anew today as mysterious arsonists set fires in the Zion Baptist Church and the Democratic Club.

Manager of Safety William Guther immediately issued new orders to police to patrol all public buildings. He said he was convinced that at least two firebugs are at large in the city.

The fires, extinguished rapidly, loaned support to the previous theory of police that the arrest of Warren Cramer, seventeen-year-old confessed incendiary, would not end the activities of arsonists.

AMAZING CONFESSION
Cramer, held in jail here on arson and theft charges, blithely confessed to starting twenty-one fires in a dozen buildings last week.

He declared, however, that several of the fires which firemen said undoubtedly were of incendiary origin were not kindled by him.

The most serious of today's fires was the church fire, which caused damage estimated at $1,000.

HAWAII FARED BETTER IN DEPRESSION YEARS THAN OTHER PLACES

Compared with other countries of the world, Hawaii suffered comparatively little during the depression years, stated M. F. Poeser, Honolulu lawyer, on his arrival at the Empress Hotel, yesterday. With Mrs. Poeser, he has been a repeated visitor to Vancouver Island.

"This is a second home to me," Mr. Poeser said in expressing his delight in being here again. Bringing their motor car with them, the visitors plan to do much traveling, but have not yet decided where.

Esquimalt Ratepayers' Association Votes Down Suggestion

An informal vote of the Esquimalt Ratepayers' Association last night went and favored a commissioner, and resulted in thirty-six persons favoring the placing of association candidates in the field for all municipal offices next January. Eight persons voted for a commission form of administration. The vote indicated the association would abandon further efforts to secure a change.

The meeting was held in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, and was attended by sixty-one persons. Fifty-three were present at the time the vote was taken. Councillor T. Harry Hodgson was the principal speaker. He contended the municipality was insolvent and favored a commissioner. He said the municipality would have

SOCIAL PLANS AWAIT FUNDS

Huey Long's Filibuster Works to Detriment of Aged and Jobless

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (P).—With social security benefit payments blocked until next year, the Administration turned today to a ten million dollar fund that will help to lay the ground work for old-age pensions and unemployment insurance.

President Roosevelt emphasized at his regular press conference that because an appropriations bill was killed by Senator Huey Long's adjournment filibuster, funds would not be available for grants to states for old-age pensions, crippled children, the blind or widows before next January.

STUDIES PLANNED
Between now and the next meeting of Congress, Mr. Roosevelt said the administrative organization would be set up, studies would be made of what each state would be entitled to and the social security agency would be prepared for quick action after the money is provided. Elsewhere, plans were being hurried for census bureau work which will lay the foundation for old-age pensions and unemployment insurance.

He threatened that, unless his demands were agreed to, he would refuse food and stare himself to death.—American Paper.

TO HOLD MEETING
A public meeting will be held tonight in the Metropolitan Church, at 8 o'clock. All those who are opposed to the serving of beer and wine in hotels, restaurants and cafes, are urged to be present.

EXCEPTIONAL BARGAINS AT DOUGLAS ST. DICK'S REMOVAL SALE

The C. N. R. is an important factor in CANADIAN MINING.

Mining is by no means a new industry in Canada, but when its future development is considered in the light of recent discoveries it may quite rightly be said to be only in its infancy. Much of the success which has attended mining in Canada is attributable to the fact that the railroad facilities of the C. N. R. were easily available. In the same way its future is linked with the extent and nature of the transportation services at its disposal.

Coal formed the largest single item in weight carried by the C. N. R. in 1934. In that year the system hauled as revenue bearing freight, over 8,000,000 tons. Were it possible to collect this vast amount in freight cars and make one long train, it would extend almost half way across the continent. The importance of this commodity to the factories and homes of Canada needs no stressing... but it is well to bear in mind that the railroad is the only land transportation medium for coal haulage where distance is a factor.

Of course other mine products enter into the freight business of the C. N. R. Altogether, over 12,000,000 tons of mine products, embracing coal, coke, ores, sand, stone, gravel, oil, salt, etc., were carried in 1934, this being a substantial increase — 22% — over the preceding year.

The mining of metals has of recent years assumed greater dimensions than before, and it may be of interest to note that of non-ferrous metals in semi-refined state the C. N. R. carried over two hundred thousand tons in 1934, which was more than twice the quantity carried in 1933.

In many districts of Canada the C. N. R. is providing the sole railroad service available to this great industry, and its tracks enter, or are close to, some of the most promising mining areas in the Dominion. In accordance with its policy of rendering the greatest possible public service the C. N. R. is co-operating to the fullest in furthering the development of these areas.

In all these branches of railroad and allied activities the C. N. R. maintains a high standard of efficiency. Its passenger trains are speedy and comfortable... fares are low and there are many special excursions at reduced rates. Its freight, express and telegraph services are quick, reliable and economical and its hotels and camps, situated throughout Canada, offer the traveller, whether on business or pleasure, accommodation of the highest standards. You are invited to make a greater use of these C. N. R. facilities.

During the present Summer season the C. N. R. is providing special fares and excursions between points throughout Canada. These are exceptional travel bargains. The nearest C. N. R. Agent will be glad to give full particulars.

PROBING PAYMENTS OF INCOME LEVIES

oil industry. After a series of public hearings the case was settled.
Until recently there has been no check on the ownership of bearer share warrants or unregistered stock, it was said. Now, however, when coupons from such shares are cashed at banks a certificate of ownership must be filed with them.
USING CERTIFICATES
It was said the income tax department was using these certificates of ownership to carry on a Dominion-wide investigation.
When a certificate of ownership is filed with a dividend coupon the department will check back to see if the person filing the certificate reported income from the stock in the previous year. If not, he will be asked to explain why he didn't. If he replies he did not own the stock in the previous year the income tax department asks from whom he obtained it. Then the previous owner will be checked to see if he declared his dividends on the stock to his income tax returns.
OWNERS ASKED TO EXPLAIN
Each unregistered stock certificate is being checked back from year to year, and owners are being made to account for their income from the stock.
Officials said there will be no publicity in the investigation unless the investigation is being carried on in district offices.

Contests for West Bay Corinthian Yacht Club Cups Were Keen

The West Bay Corinthian Yacht Club has just completed a successful season of small-boat racing on West Bay waters. In all, ten days of racing took place. On all occasions the contests were keen, and throughout the season the weather varied from very light winds to heavy sailing breezes, thus providing a fair test for both boats and crews.

The chief contest of the season was for the Corinthian Cup, presented by the honorary commodore, W. W. Aspin, Clyde (Scotland) Corinthian Yacht Club. This cup was sailed for in a series of six races, and was won by Redwing, a 12-foot sloop, from Drusilla and Sombra, 14-foot sloops, the two latter lying for second place, two points behind the winner.

The honorary vice-commodore's prize, presented by Sir Charles MacAndrew, Royal Northern (Scotland) Yacht Club, and the W.B.C.Y.C. Challenge Cup, presented by J. G. Niven, were both won by Bonita, a 16-foot sloop, from White Swan and Redwing.

Larger Type for B.C. Statutes Is Now Being Used

PROGRESS caught up with the King's Printer at the Legislative Buildings the other day, and sold him a new font of type. In consequence the last few issues of The Gazette and now reports of the Province are being issued in a brand new face, called Century type. Ranging from what printers know as seven point to eleven point, the new type in its larger sizes will make for easier reading of British Columbia legislative bills, departmental reports, minimum wage orders, and the miscellany of documents and reports that are issued under Provincial authority. It will also consume more paper.

MAY BE TRIED BY HIS PEERS

Baron de Clifford Committed For Trial on Charge of Manslaughter

KINGSTON, England, Aug. 28 (AP)—Edward Southwell Russell, Baron de Clifford, today was committed for trial on a charge of manslaughter arising from a motor car accident. Indications were he might seek trial by his peers, the House of Lords.

Baron de Clifford, son of an historic family whose lineage goes back to the thirteenth century, is a racing motorist and a son-in-law of the late Mrs. Kate Meyrick, night-club queen.

FACES OTHER CHARGES

In addition to manslaughter, he is charged with dangerous driving and driving without due care and attention. The twenty-six-year-old peer reserved defence, after pleading not guilty. When the judge ordered him tried at the Central Criminal Court (the Old Bailey) the prosecutor interjected, "Before the House of Lords, I think."

Announcements

There is an Agony of Mind that only sensitive women who suffer from superfluous hair can understand. They distrust advertisements which offer instantaneous cures, having found the relief merely transitory. They rarely speak of their disfigurement, but just bear it in silence. To such women Miss Hanman would issue an invitation to come and see her—they will meet with every kindness and consideration, and there will be no charge whatever for consultation.

Mrs. J. D. Gordon Congratulates Women on Their Industry and Enterprise in Opening Flower Show and Display of Work

A very fine display of flowers and a number of other interesting exhibits were on view at the Parish Hall, Esquimalt, yesterday afternoon, when the Esquimalt Women's Institute staged its annual flower show. Formally opened by Mrs. J. D. Gordon, who for so many years has held a leading place in women's institute activities throughout the province, the show was under the general chairmanship of Mrs. K. The membership of the organization is twenty-two paid-up members.

A gratifying number of visitors attended during the afternoon, and last evening the affair concluded with a card party, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Nellie Kelly.

A girl who had just been telling her small son some of the "facts of life," and when she finished she said: "Now, son, are there any questions?"

Jane Dixon Says:
A GIRL WHO CONTINUES TO GO WITH A MAN, IN THE HOPE THAT HE WILL LOVE HER, DOES SO AT HER OWN RISK.

The weekly round-up: If some of your questions have not been answered to your satisfaction, read the Roundup, and you may find another solution.

J. Longaker: I'm afraid you do not read very carefully, my dear man. I did not say a farmer was a blot on the face of the earth. I said "a blot, whether he farms or sits in the seats of the mighty, is a blot on the face of the earth." In other words, a blot is the sort of blot I designated, no matter what his occupation. Get it?

"Toots": The young man told you quite plainly not to fall in love with him, didn't he? I agree with you that telling him you do love him would not only be very useless, but very foolish. If you continue to go with him, the hope he will love you, you do so at your own risk. If he wants your love, he'll ask for it. Meantime, you had better turn your interest in other directions.

Difficult: Your parents and your uncle are right. A sixteen-year-old girl had better finish her schooling and prepare herself to live an intelligent married life. You've fallen in love with three boys already. How do you know there won't be another and even greater love? The boy's sister, urging you not to listen to your parents, who have given you such good and kind advice, is not your friend. She is an enemy to your future.

E. J.: If the young man's infirmity makes no difference to you, if you love him devotedly in spite of it and he loves you, outside interference should not be tolerated. I know from your letter that yours is a very tender and honest love. Be kind to him and help him carry on through his remaining year of training. My sincere wishes for the ultimate happiness of you both.

WHAT'S THE BIG HURRY?
H. H. You're very fortunate to have an ambitious, interesting, "career" man like Bob in love with you. Why shouldn't you wait two years while such a man finishes the preparation for his profession? How do you know you will have another "chance" by which I take it you mean a chance at marriage, as good as this one? You have your profession, so what's the great hurry? If you don't love Bob enough to be proud to help him and encourage him and stand by him while he is preparing for your future together, you had better give him up and go in search of those possible "other chances."

Canada: This column does not make introductions. I am sorry for your loneliness, but can do nothing about it. That is a problem you must solve for yourself.

V. K. C. R.: You know, without asking me, that a girl who goes with men for material gain only, and dismisses them when she can no longer "gold-dig," and who then goes gallivanting with a married man, is not worthy of any regular young man. I believe he would find him self very short on the outside looking in, as have the other ousted husbands in the girl's family.

V. F.: Wait until your fiance finishes his medical school. I answered your queries fully in an earlier column, but since you seem to have missed it, here's the answer briefly: You do not like his family. Going to live with them might brew dissension between you and the man you love. You are unhappy apart, but it is better to be unhappy a little than to suffer much.

Institute to Have a Stall At Exhibition

Plans are being made by the Royal Oak Women's Institute, which is sponsoring a collection of $5,000 for the Queen Alexandra Solarium X-ray fund, to have a stall in the Manufacturers' Building at the Wilfrid during the Provincial Exhibition starting on September 14.

Instruments used for treatment of the little patients at the Solarium will be on exhibition, and a Solarium worker will be in attendance to explain the work of the institution, the use of the instruments and to show pictures.

A contest is also being arranged by the institute members, the prize for which will include pairs of blankets and an Afghan.

The institute has met with generous support in its campaign for donations for the X-ray fund, but the sum of $1,200 is still needed to complete the quota, and an urgent appeal is being made by means of the proposed collection at the exhibition to realize this sum.

A Rugby forward broke an arm and was carried off. There happened to be a doctor among the spectators, and as he was fixing on a temporary splint the victim asked with a pallid grin: "Will I be able to play the violin when this break mends?" "Of course, you will," replied the medico, jovially. "That's damn funny," said the footballer. "I couldn't play it before."

El Capitan Club Now Meeting in Empress Hotel Will Conclude Business Today

The El Capitan Club of the California-Western States Life Insurance Company, held another interesting session yesterday morning in the Empress Hotel, which is the meeting place of the organization this week. With the first part of the meeting presided over by A. H. Haken, of Salt Lake City, Ray P. Cox, vice-president of the insurance company, gave another of his interesting talks on participating insurance and the advantages in favor of life insurance as a form of investment. He pointed out the many avenues open to the holder of life insurance, in taking advantage of other investments that might present themselves.

For the second half of the meeting, Frank E. Russell, of Portland, Oregon, presided. Interesting aspects of the conservation idea in life insurance were brought out by various speakers, who offered short reviews. These included Grant Taggart, J. Vivian Hall, Paul Taylor, Warner Cockrell, W. W. Johnston and Wendell S. Woodruff. In the afternoon, the golf tournament of the meet was held at the Oak Bay golf course. Last evening the delegates were the guests of the company represented by the president, O. J. Lacy, at a dinner in the ballroom. The convention will continue today, with the business ending in time for the party to take the 5 o'clock steamer for Seattle.

SALVATION ARMY GIVING CONCERT

Massed singers of Victoria and Vancouver, as well as a band of thirty instrumentalists, will provide music and singing on Sunday night at 8:45 o'clock at the Show Boat in the Inner Harbor. The occasion will be the visit to Victoria of the Vancouver Salvation Army Englester Brigade, which is a first-class musical combination well known on the Coast. They number thirty members, under the direction of Songster Leader Lawson. On Sunday night the visitors will give numbers and for other items the Victoria Songster Brigade will unite in massed singing. The band will provide instrumental items in between the singing. All will be of a sacred nature, in keeping with Sunday, and some old-fashioned community singing will be held under the conductorship of Brigadier Daisel, who will accompany the visitors and who is in charge of the Salvation Army work in British Columbia. Brigadier Daisel is an expert English concertina player and a composer of some well-known Salvation Army music.

The Tourist Trade Development Association has placed the entire equipment of the Show Boat at the disposal of the Army and a capacity audience is expected to enjoy this Sunday evening at sacred music and singing.

ITALY DETERMINED TO GO ON WITH WAR

The Cabinet communiqué expressed the confidence of Mussolini's Government that the League Council would remember "that in previous, much more serious cases, the League of Nations did not vote, and even less could have applied, sanctions of whatever nature."

The Cabinet—in which Mussolini himself holds eight posts, a majority—made these provisions:

WAR PREPARATIONS

Forcible conversion of foreign credit held by Italians into Italian Government bonds; limitation of dividends, and a transformation of all automobiles and trucks into charcoal gas-burning vehicles so as to save gasoline.

The communiqué said Italy would go to Geneva September 4 with full "documentation" against Ethiopia. The Cabinet presented the world with the following ten main points:

1. Italy will go to the League with documentation to prove that Ethiopia is "retrograde and slaveholding."

2. "Italy intends to defend her interests of life up to the very last."

3. Great Britain has nothing to fear from Italy's policy toward Ethiopia.

4. The Fascist Government thinks the colonial question should not reflect upon the European situation unless someone wants to run that risk.

5. Sanctions may lead to "the most serious complications," but the Fascist Government has already taken the necessary measures to face them.

6. The Government has taken steps to guarantee economic resistance, including:

7. Obligatory conversion of foreign credits;

8. Limitations upon corporation profits;

9. A 10 per cent tax upon dividends and interest;

10. Transformation of automobiles into charcoal gas-burners in order to save gasoline.

SAFETY FIRST

PARIS, Aug. 28 (AP).—Premier Laval's design removing the war clouds from Europe by giving a new name to the Italo-Ethiopian situation, other than "war," won him today the Cabinet's authority to proceed freely at Geneva.

He obtained approval to place France's safety above the possibility of an Ethiopian war.

The Cabinet voted him a "free hand," told him he could go as far as to oppose any suggestion of sanctions or threats of "war" and made one request—that he try to save France the friendship of both Italy and Great Britain.

Mussolini's agreement to present a full statement of his case against Ethiopia to the League of Nations Council session September 4 was hailed tonight as the first victory in Laval's campaign for peace.

TASK EASIER
If Duce's statement at Bolzano, Italy, that Britain has nothing to fear from Italy's Ethiopian policy was seen as a further influence to quiet British opinion and make Laval's task of mediation easier.

Laval said, about the chance of effecting a peaceful settlement of the East African situation, but was confident the spread of war to Europe, if war comes, can be prevented.

Officials explained, after the Cabinet meeting, that the "German menace" is spurring the Premier to utmost efforts to maintain the three-power front in which France, Britain and Italy have been allied. He seeks also, they said, to save the prestige of the League of Nations.

They added that the French approve the English stand in principle, but believe the Italian position must be considered and compromises found.

Foreign military quarters considered it a precautionary move. No official statement was issued.

At the same time the Independent Socialist Party called upon organized labor to exert every effort to thwart Mussolini's African programme. There was a possibility that labor organizations throughout Europe would act through general strikes and boycotts to combat Italy in the event of war in Africa.

CHARMING FILM HAS STRONG CAST

Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter Have Leading Roles in "One More Spring"

If you had to be marooned would you choose a remote island, or more practical, select a city park?

The second alternative is adopted by the characters in the much lauded "One More Spring," the dramatic story of two lonely souls in quest of romance.

Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter, screen's perfect team, are co-starred in Fox Film's screen version of the Robert Nathan best-seller of the same name. It comes today to the Playhouse Theatre for a three-day engagement.

It is the absorbing story of a friendless girl holding tight to her dreams of romance, and of a courageous man battered by adversity. The story is reported to have charm and whimsically, a poignant current of drama, and the pulse of adventure. In the supporting cast are Walter King, Roger Imhof, Jane Darwell, Grant Mitchell and Siepin Fitchell, in a "natural" role as a lion-tamer.

According to the newest of the magazines in our dentist's outer office, business was never better, and 1935 may prove an even bigger year.

MAKES PLEA TO ASSIST BOARD

A. H. Peterson Says That Producers Should Back Up Work in Hand

A. H. Peterson, the Vancouver Island representative on the British Columbia Coast Vegetable Marketing Board, was in the city yesterday in connection with the work of the organization, which makes its headquarters in Vancouver. The board, says Mr. Peterson, operates under the Natural Products Marketing Act of the Dominion and of the province, and he says that 95 per cent of the white growers are believers in the work that is being carried out.

"If we want a white British Columbia, stay with the proposition which the board has in hand," is the advice offered by Mr. Peterson. He goes further, and says that the Chinese are trying their best to break up the operations. The Chinese wholesalers and the whites who are renting land to Chinese growers, are those who are fighting the work the board has in hand, says Mr. Peterson.

RECORD OF YEAR
He goes on to say that, starting on June 1, the operations up to August 10, in the matter of potatoes, show that the board handled for export 27,891 sacks, reaching a value of $43,343.78. The local sales were 27,884 sacks valued at $20,689.76. This made a total of 55,775 sacks valued at $64,033.54. The average price per ton was $25.82, as compared with the price of $10.80 per ton in 1934.

Mr. Peterson takes the position that the growers are reaping a far better return for his product this year than he did last. In 1934, in the shipments made, dozens of cars were shipped on consignment. In 1935, under the operations of the board, all potatoes shipped were on a firm sale price before the potatoes left Vancouver.

LUMBER MILLS FACING FIGHT

Increased Competition From United States Indicated in Commerce Board Report

British Columbia's timber industry, already fighting for markets in many parts of the world, may expect increased competition from the United States, it is indicated in a report issued by the United States Department of Commerce. The report, received by the British Columbia Loggers' Association, reveals clearly that United States lumbermen, unable to keep their mills operating at full time on the basis of domestic consumption, are seeking increased foreign markets which they cannot secure except at the expense of British Columbia.

The Department of Commerce has just concluded an exhaustive survey of the whole United States timber situation and, after reviewing the domestic market, declares in favor of strong efforts to sell more lumber in foreign countries.

OPEN CHANNELS

"Open channels of trade with other countries," it asserts, "through reciprocal trade agreements, will do much to promote foreign trade in American lumber. Deliberate attention to foreign lumber market needs must continue. The lumber industry, if it wishes to retain its place in foreign markets, must cater to the building customs, as well as to the industrial trends in each country whose trade it seeks."

Supporting this conclusion, the report shows that United States domestic lumber consumption has dropped from 35,000,000 feet in 1929 to an estimated total of 16,000,000 feet this year. For this reason increased foreign markets are desired to absorb the possible output of the industry. Already American lumber exports have gained substantially in the last few months, while British Columbia exports have dropped.

FUTURE POSITION

These world factors are reflected in employment and activity generally in British Columbia's largest industry. They will determine largely the rate of recovery in the industry from the slump experienced early in the summer. At the moment loggers hesitate to reopen many of the large camps now closed, and are watching the world market closely, particularly in connection with Russian and United States exports. The total production of timber in this province is greater now than at Midsummer, indicating a considerable degree of recovery, but showed a drop to 28,070,000 feet in the last week from the figure of 35,327,000 feet in the previous week.

SUGGESTIONS FOR HAY FEVER SUFFERERS

There are seasons when the sufferers from hay fever find that the symptoms are not so severe as in previous years and they naturally believe that their hay-fever is gradually disappearing. The following year they find that the symptoms are more severe than ever before and their hope gives way to despair. It is now generally known that the increase or decrease in the symptoms is due to the amount of pollen from the grass weed that is in the air. If the air is not hot and dry there will be more pollen in the air than when it is cool and wet, and so the symptoms depend upon the weather.

It is generally agreed that the injection into the skin of vaccines made up from pollen is the best method of relief.

method of preventing attacks—although it falls in a great many cases. These injections should be given six or eight weeks before the regular onset of the symptoms.

However, when the hay fever season arrives something must be done to give the patient some relief.

Going to districts where there is no grass pollen, an ocean trip, or the use of air filtered rooms or chambers a number of hours a day are good methods of preventing symptoms, but very few can take advantage of them.

When the symptoms are very severe, the lining of the nose so swollen that breathing through the nose is impossible, the application of a silver nitrate solution as prescribed by the family physician will relieve the symptoms for a short time.

The use of extract of the adrenal gland, which may be purchased under various trade names, is helpful to both the nose and the eyes. These extracts may be used in the liquid form in the eyes—one or two drops every three or four hours. In the nose the liquid may be used as a spray, or combined in an ointment applied with the little finger as far forward and backward as possible. Wearing dark glasses during the hay fever season is very restful to the eyes, and relieves the soreness to a considerable extent.

Mr. Overstall, of Victoria, was then called upon to say a few words, following which, Mr. Maynard told how remarkably he had been helped to carry on the building so far, largely by the voluntary help of various workers, to all of whom he gave earnest thanks. Mr. Robertson closed with a resume of the development of the work since the beginning, five years ago.

Programme of First Open Regatta Issued By Officers of Club

Royal Victoria Yacht Club Meeting at Cadboro Bay on Labor Day Backed by Tourist Trade Development Association

For the Labor Day regatta being sponsored by the Royal Victoria Yacht Club at Cadboro Bay, and which has the backing of the Tourist Trade Development Association, officers of the yachting organization announce an ambitious list of events, varied enough to give owners of every variety of boat an opportunity to compete and at the same time demonstrate what they can do against other craft of similar design.

With between two and three hours of sailing in the morning and another two hours of sailing and motor boat racing in the afternoon, there will be plenty of entertainment for both contestants and on-lookers, the races being more or less in view from the shoreline adjacent to Cadboro Bay.

The opening gun will be fired at 10 o'clock when the larger boats, auxiliary cruisers and the like will get away for their race around Discovery Island. This race, which takes them over a course of about eight miles, passes round the islands down the south shore, round the easterly point, back up along the north shore between Chatham Island and Ten Mile Point and home to the finishing line.

SMALLER CLASSES
Ten minutes after the big boats get going the star class boats, weather permitting, will start off on the same course in a race for the Tzouhale Cup, which in previous years has been raced for at Cowichan Bay. At 10:15 the club international class of fourteen-foot dinghies will be sent away around a two-mile course in the bay, probably twice round and taking about one and a half hours. At 10:20 the snipes and flatties will follow the dinghies, and at five-minute intervals the "B" class dinghies, twelve to thirteen feet, will race over a slightly shorter course.

Some time between 11:30 and noon the power cruisers will start independently at such time as will take them round Discovery Island and back by 1 p.m., depending on their speed. The starting time is worked out by the skippers and notice of the same is placed in the hands of the judges some time before they start away.

Given a fair breeze all the morning races should be completed soon after 12 o'clock. In the afternoon the stars and international class dinghies, owned by club members, will sail off another of their d-d-f-e-r-r-e-d series races for the Longstreth and Devonian Cups, starting together at 2 o'clock, but sailing different length courses within the confines of Cadboro Bay.

At 2:05 all the rest of the small sailing fleet will take part in a balloon race. This race is more a test of boat-handling than actual speed, as the object is to collect as many balloons as possible from a number which have been previously released on the water and allowed to drift with the wind. At 2:30 o'clock the Victoria Lifeboat Association will put on a demonstration which will take about thirty minutes. Immediately following will be held a ladies' paddling race in the sailing dinghies.

DINGHY PADDLING
This type of boat is not built for paddling, this usually ends in them going in every direction except the right one, and the first boat "in," does not necessarily indicate good paddling.

At 3:15 the owners of the power cruisers will enter for a pulling race in their yachts, which should be a test of something. Following this event, a second paddling race for the crews of the sailing dinghies in their own boats will wind up the events for the afternoon. Lunch and tea will be available in the clubhouse for the crews and their friends, and the prizes will be given away at 5 o'clock to allow those boats which have to return to their home waters to get under way in daylight.

There have been thirty-five applications so far for entries in the various events, and it is understood that others may be expected. The regatta committee has extended the time for submitting applications until 6 p.m. Sunday, September 1, so that no boat owner, who is able to reach Cadboro Bay in time for his, or her name, to be entered for any race, may be prevented from taking part. It is hoped, however, that in consideration for the officials, those wishing to enter will notify the secretary of the Yacht Club as soon as possible.

INTERESTED IN HAWAIIAN MUSIC
Well-Known Composer, While on Visit to Honolulu, Impressed With Native Melodies

Nathaniel Shilket, internationally known composer, radio artist and concert pianist, was a visitor to Victoria for a short time yesterday. Mr. Shilket, accompanied by his wife, arrived by the S.S. Empress of Canada from Honolulu. Chatting with newspapermen, Mr. Shilket stated that he had been greatly impressed with the native Hawaiian melodies during his stay in the islands. He studied it at some length and it is possible he will compose a suite dealing with the music of the islands. While here, Mr. and Mrs. Shilket spent some time driving about. The climate yesterday was very much the same as they had experienced while in Honolulu. They are traveling home to New York through Canada, and will stop off at Banff en route for a short visit.

Wealthy British Yachting Enthusiast Considering Try For America's Cup

TORQUAY, England, Aug. 28 (AP).—C. R. Fairey, wealthy yachting enthusiast and airplane manufacturer, may be the next challenger for the America's Cup. Yachtsmen here understand Fairey has about decided to try his luck with a new "K" class craft of 110 tons, the next size smaller than the "J" class boats, such as T. O. M. Sopwith's unsuccessful challenger, Endeavour.

Fairey, recently elected commodore of the Royal London Yacht Club, witnessed the cup races last year and is believed to have made up his mind at that time to make a try for the cup. British yachtsmen have been trying to win the trophy ever since 1851.

The plans of Sopwith are believed to hinge upon what Fairey eventually decides. Sopwith has started drafting plans for a new Endeavour, but may scrap them if Fairey should enter the list.

Excursions to many of the popular resorts and playgrounds near Victoria are being run by the Vancouver Island Coach Lines for Labor Day week-end. In addition to the low week-end fares, the final return limits of which have been extended until Tuesday midnight, September 3, a special bus is scheduled to meet the Steveston Ferry at 10 o'clock on Monday night. This allows the passengers who are spending the week-end in the Mainland city to leave Vancouver as late as 6 o'clock in the evening of Labor Day—arriving back in Victoria at 11 at night.

The last excursion of the year is being run by Friday Harbor on Saturday night. This trip offers a delightful cruise through the American Gulf Islands to this fascinating port.

Excursions to Shawnigan Lake, Sooke Harbor and the ever-popular Goldstream Park are being run on both Sunday and Monday. A mystery trip and an excursion to Newcastle Island on Sunday, and bargain excursions to Nanaimo, Qualicum Beach and Jordan River on Labor Day round out an attractive programme for the traveler and picnickers.

It is urged that people wishing to avail themselves of the opportunities offered by the above bargain trips, purchase their tickets in advance in order to avoid disappointment.

CLUB CONTINENTAL PLANS PROGRAMME FOR OPENING NIGHT

Dance Team Engaged as Special Feature During Intermissions—Al Reynolds to Direct Orchestra in Latest Dance Presentations—Set Policy for Club's Operation

TOMORROW night is the date set for the opening of the Club Continental, Victoria's new supper-dance rendezvous, on the corner of Yates and Vancouver Streets. As the premises, formerly those occupied by the Rockgas offices, have taken shape under the labors of painters, carpenters and decorators, interest and speculation have been rife among passers-by. Now it is completed and it needs only the throngs of dancers who have already made their reservations for tomorrow night to transform it to a scene of revelry and enjoyment.

Under the management of Barry Webb, well-known Victorian, the Club Continental is a strictly local venture, operated on modern lines, which will render it one of the most up-to-date in the Province. FEATURES OF NIGHT CLUB ARE MODERN

Every Detail Speaks of Quality and Artistic Decoration Throughout

The Club Continental, Victoria's new supper-dance establishment, has been carefully modeled on the very latest plans and incorporates features only found in the most up-to-date dance clubs. Down to the minutest detail quality of workmanship and artistic decoration has been arranged.

The front of the building has a big canopy sheltering the entrance, under which patrons may alight from car or taxi protected from the weather. Inside the brilliantly-lighted interior is first a hall, shortly to be converted into a lounge with modernistic settees, while to the left is the office and the checkroom. Up a few steps and the dance floor is reached. Tables are arranged around the main floor, while the dance floor proper is sunk a few inches below this level. This is of an entirely original type, being swung on rubber with the added feature of being free or floating, that is to say, it is not attached to the side walls, giving it an unusual amount of resilience and life. Lumber for these extensive alterations was secured from the Shawnigan Lake Lumber yards and from Lemon & Gonnason Lumber Company. The Vancouver Island Hardwood Floor Company supplied the expert workmanship in finishing the dance floor.

SPLENDID WALLS
The walls are finished in panels of Ten-Test Wall Board, supplied by the Sidney Roofing Company. The material was chosen both for artistic appearance and for the acoustic qualities. The facing of the paneling is in Algerian red, which motif is carried out in the cushioned chairs and drapes, the latter being supplied by David Spencer Ltd. The waitresses and girl attendants will wear harmonizing uniforms which are neat and smart. The delicious light suppers are served from the kitchen in the back premises, catering being in the hands of Morris Kersey.

At the head of the dance floor stands the orchestra platform, raised well above the level of the dancers. A new Willis studio grand piano has been purchased from the Willis Piano Company, the latest of its type and the outcome of years of experiment in the manufacture of a suitable instrument for this class of use. A public address system is installed in order to emphasize the rendition of vocal numbers or instrumental solos. The whole is illuminated by concealed lighting which is reflected from the cream walls and ceiling, casting no shadows. A spotlight will be operated from high up in the wall. The up-to-date plumbing throughout was installed by the Victoria Plumbing Company, Ltd.

What Today Means

"VIRGO"
If August 29 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. until noon, from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. The danger periods are from 8 to 10 a.m., from 4 to 6 p.m. and from 9 to 11 p.m.

Be careful not to resort to promises simply as a means of getting rid of some bothersome person, unless you feel confident you can carry them out. Truthfulness will be the basis of success. Any form of misrepresentation is likely to prove a grave mistake, especially in business transactions. This day should be auspicious for all affairs relating to household regulations, especially in the finding of happy solutions to domestic problems. Your mental faculties possibly will be unusually alert, enabling you to accomplish many things in a highly satisfactory manner. You probably will get some very lucky break in something involving either finances or social aspirations. Married and engaged couples, and those waiting for an opportunity to plight their troth must guard against allowing jealousy to influence either their thoughts or actions this day, if they would avoid a complicated situation.

If a woman and August 29 is your birthday, by being able to repress any outward show of your feelings you may create the wrong impression of not being deeply emotional. You are capable of a depth of feeling and sense of loyalty that may not always be fully appreciated by those who do not know you well. It will pay you to cultivate greater warmth of expression, especially in your social contacts. You are going to be very fortunate in some way, probably in the acquisition of worldly goods. You should have a great deal of sales ability and possibly have a talent for writing, painting, music, teaching or singing. Your home life ought to be ideal, as you have all the attributes of a good wife and mother.

The child born on August 29 generally, when it reaches preparatory school age, is a fair student and popular with its schoolmates and teachers.

If a man and August 29 is your natal day, you have probably a great deal of versatility. You should be a fluent speaker, with a readiness of wit that may gain you peculiar popularity. Your success may come through one of the arts, salesmanship, educational work or journalism. You may find greater contentment through matrimony than through bachelorhood.

GROUP'S MEETING IS INTERNATIONAL

No Trace of Class or Social Distinction—Plan for Meeting at Geneva

For a full week, from Monday, Aug. 19 to Monday, Aug. 26, there have been gathered together at Seaback, Washington, some 150 persons. They came from all over the Pacific Northwest; men and women, young and old, rich and poor. About one-third of this company came from Canada and the rest from the United States. Many prominent people in church and state were there. They were adherents of the Oxford Group movement.

No trace of any national prejudice between Canadians and Americans could even be sensed in this gathering. Also no trace of class and social distinctions.

Amongst them were a few who had recently returned from attending the International House Party of the Oxford Group at Oxford, a house party attended by over 10,000 people drawn from forty different nations. These witnessed to the wonderful spirit of fellowship that had been evident there, not merely between two friendly English-speaking nations as at Seaback, but between nationals of France and Germany, China and Japan, Italy and Yugoslavia.

Those at the meeting learned that an Oxford group team was planning to be at Geneva on September 4 when the League Council is meeting, a meeting which will decide peace or war between Italy and Ethiopia.

LANDMARK DESTROYED

Said Mr. Kelly to Mr. Clancy

"An' phwat might be all this talk I'm hearing about Conditioned Air they serve at the Club Continental?"

"Take shame to yerself, ye ignoramus! Did ye niver hear tell of Conditioned Air before?"

"Indade an' I haven't; and 'tis ashamed of meself I am entirely."

"It's loike this. The Club Continental being strictly up to date—the cat's pajamas—the bee's knees and the whale's eye-lashes, as the younger generation would say—the best is none too good for all them that goes there for their intertainment an' a frolic. Consequently, the management would have nothing but gas heating with conditioned air. A couple of gas furnaces kape the place warm. These furnaces have humidifiers that put just the right quantity of moisture into the air warmed by the furnaces, and a filter arrangement takes all the dust out of the air before it is warmed by the furnaces. An' whin the air was been filtered, warmed and humidified 'tis called Conditioned Air. That means the whole place is nather too hot nor too cold, but always fresh, healthful and comfortable under all conditions."

"But it must take an army of men to run a contraption like that."

"Divvul a wan—'tis automatic entirely."

"That's the place for me, Mr. Clancy."

"And the place for me, Mr. Kelly."

FIVE B.C. CHAMPIONSHIPS WON BY VICTORIANS

Canadian Open Golf Tourney Will Start At Summerlea Today

Field of 135 Noted Pros and Amateurs to Open Competition for Title Left Vacant by Tommy Armour—U.S. Contingent Strong

By ELMER DULMAGE
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

SUMMERLEA, Montreal, Aug. 28 (AP).—Wind-blown Summerlea roared a gusty challenge today at the international golfing platoon that has its sights trained on the Canadian open championship, establishing at least that there won't be any fooling with the breezes blow. Most of the field of 135 registered starters toured Summerlea under the handicap of a high wind in the final tune-up for the seventy-second hole test that will be played Friday, and the sixty leading scorers will fight it out over thirty-six holes on Saturday.

"I must have been fooling when I said someone would score 272," grinned a rueful Ed Bradley, of Philadelphia, who made this prediction yesterday. "If this wind keeps up I think 280 or 290 will win."

MERMAIDS TO RACE TODAY

Nineteen Swimmers to Go After $1,000 Prize at C.N. Exhibition

TORONTO, Aug. 28 (AP).—Lake Ontario tonight held a chilly challenge for the nineteen swimmers who will try tomorrow for the world's five mile title and a prize of $2,000 prize money offered by the Canadian National Exhibition.

The temperature of the course twenty-four hours before the start was 58 degrees, 15 degrees colder than Tuesday evening when Gianni Gambi led ninety-one others in the men's professional swim.

There was a possibility that only seventeen would start. Ruth Downing, of Toronto, it was reported, would be too busy preparing for her wedding Saturday to Danny Donald to enter the swim. Eva Bein, of Brooklyn, N.Y., had not arrived.

The oldest entrant is Mrs. Bertha Belsky, of Cleveland. She is thirty-four, the mother of three children. She entered "just for fun, not the money."

The youngest is eleven-year-old Marion Bump, of Baraboo, Wis., who has entered with her mother, Mrs. Everett E. Bump.

First to appear for medical examination was pretty eighteen-year-old Ann Mundell, of Vancouver, who decorates cakes for a living. Another Vancouver entrant is Charlotte Acres.

Mrs. Dorothy Raine Evans, of Toronto, will duplicate her swim attire of last year when she plunges into the lake dressed in silk trunks and a crepe pantsuit. The paper will "melt off in a few minutes" and she will swim in the trunks.

First to finish the five-mile course laid out inside the breakwater off the Exhibition grounds will receive $1,000, second prize is $500, and the four other money prizes in order will bring $250, $125, $75 and $50.

Dorothy Traung, 1934 Runner-Up in U.S. Golf, After Canadian Title

VANCOUVER, Aug. 28 (AP).—Dorothy Traung, of San Francisco, runner-up in the United States women's golf championship last year, is expected to compete in the Canadian women's open championship opening at the Jericho Golf and Country Club here September 9.

Mrs. Caroline Stark, secretary of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union, British Columbia branch, stated today she had received a letter indicating Miss Traung would come here direct from Minneapolis, where the United States national is now under way. She said it was probable other California golfers would come here from Minneapolis.

The entry of an Alberta team for the inter-provincial championships has brought the number of teams entered to five. Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba and British Columbia had already entered.

ADDISON REGISTERS DOUBLE TRIUMPH AT PROVINCIAL MEETING

Fleet Sprinter Captures Quarter-Mile and 120-Yard Hurdles—Dale Wins Half-Mile Crown—Art Chapman Lifts High Jump Honors—Poole and McPhee in Sprint Victories

Beneath a burning hot August sun and before a crowd conservatively estimated at 2,500 people, British Columbia men's track and field champions in thirteen events were named yesterday at Macdonald Park at the monster title meet staged under the auspices of the Civic Employees' Federation of Greater Victoria. With the cream of Western Canada athletes, many of whom have gained national recognition, assembled, the event was easily the most successful in the history of Victoria track and field annals for more than a decade.

Of the thirteen provincial titles at stake, five were won by Coach Archie McKinnon's Flying "Y" track and field stars. Joe Addison, Victoria's "Flying Coy," scored a double victory for the locals when he carried off first place in the 440 yards and the 120-yard hurdles. Lanky Bill Dale, young distance star, brought the 880-yard championship to the Capitol City, while Art Chapman, member of the Victoria Blue Ribbons, Canadian hoop champions, added the high jump to the local title collection. The fifth championship carried off by the "Y" stars was the 880-yard relay.

POOLE WINS
Allan Poole, sensational young sprint star from Kelowna, gave the interior city its only championship, when he breasted the tape first in the 100-yard event. Vancouver Amateur Athletic Club annexed four events and one track title. Bob Dixon, British Empire Games javelin champion, literally walked off with the honors in this event, and just for good measure, added the sixteen-pound shot to his list. R. Waters, a clubmate, won the discus throw, and Howie McPhee, Vancouver Amateur Athletic Club sprinter, gave the Mainland its only track victory when he copped the 220-yard sprint.

Hugh Thompson, red-haired Nanaimo distance runner, brought the Up-Island city its lone British Columbia championship when he captured the one mile race. Duncan eased into the title picture when C. Williams came through to victory in the running broad jump.

Staged prior to the commencement of the British Columbia championship events, the parade of athletes was a pleasing and colorful spectacle. Led by the Canadian Scottish pipe band, and followed in turn by the many dancers in their colorful costumes, the march gained the continued applause along its short route in front of the bleachers.

A Tamed Porcupine—Though the porcupine is a docile, peaceable little animal when left to go his own way, he is by reason of his powerfully defensive quills feared by man and beast alike, when stirred to battle. Only in very rare instances have zoologists been able to tame a porcupine to any degree, but A. Dean Lindsay, of Tampa, Florida and Hollidaysburg, Pa., has one that he has tamed and domesticated himself. He keeps it around his home at all times, and carries it with him wherever he goes.

The Narrowest Building—What Philadelphians believe to be the narrowest building is a tiny, thin structure located on the S.E. corner of 15th and South Penn Square. The architect had a plot of ground just three inches wide and fifty feet long to build on, and the finished building measures exactly forty-four inches wide and seventy feet long, housing a small counter lunch and soft drink stand, capable of accommodating twenty people at a time. And tiny as it is, the building has its own heating plant and mechanical equipment.

By ALEX MORRISON

C. C. Auchincloss, of Roslyn, L.I., is my most loyal and successful pupil.

C. C. has played golf for thirty-five years. His intelligent application of my instruction enabled him to put aside habits of long standing. In the first six months he worked with me he shot in the seventies no less than seven times to win a bet made with some of his friends.

Auchincloss won the bankers' tournament in 1934 and 1935 over the difficult National course at Southampton, L.I. The field included a former national amateur champion.

FLIGHT... by W. D. TIPTON and J. H. MASON

THEIR PLANE WAS A FOKKER T-2 ARMY TRANSPORT WITH A 400 H.P. LIBERTY ENGINE.

JOHN MacReady and Oakley Kelly made a good long distance team. MacReady, cool, collected and unexcitable, was just the needed supplement for the energetic and resourceful Kelly. For nearly a year they learned together in an effort to make the first trans-continental non-stop flight.

Two of their attempts were unsuccessful. The first, on October 4, 1922, resulted in the setting of an unofficial endurance record of thirty-five hours and eighteen minutes. After taking off from San Diego, with a terrific fuel load, they found that they could climb no higher than 1,700 feet, not enough to clear the fog-shrouded mountains to the east.

MACREADY AND KELLY
LTS. JOHN A. MACREADY AND OAKLEY KELLY MADE THE FIRST TRANS-CONTINENTAL NON-STOP FLIGHT ON MAY 2-3, 1933 IN 26 HOURS 50 MINUTES.

THEY NEARLY CAME TO GRIEF AT THE TAKEOFF FROM ROOSEVELT FIELD WHEN THEY BARELY CLEARED THE HANGARS WITH THEIR HEAVILY LADEN CRAFT.

Their second west-east attempt ended on November 4, 1922, when a water jacket cracked about 400 miles east of San Diego. After flying all night through violent storms, during which their failing engine consumed everything liquid aboard, including their soup, they came down at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis.

On their third and successful attempt they chose the east to west crossing so that their fuel load would be greatly lightened by the time they reached the high passes of the Rockies. At that, they could not clear the mountains at St. Johns, Arizona, and had to retrace their path through fog to find a new route over the high country.

BEACH PATROL by GLUYAS WILLIAMS

How It Started by JEAN NEWTON

WHY IT IS CALLED MARMALADE Today marmalade may be a preserve made from the pulp of any one of a number of varieties of fruit, boiled with sugar and brought to the consistency of a jam.

Among the popular fruits generally used for marmalade are the pear, apple, orange and quince. It is from the latter that this confection takes its name.

For we have the English word marmalade after the Portuguese marmelo, which in turn is derived from the Latin melleum, meaning honey-apple — our quince — from which marmalade was originally made.

A good story concerns Herr Remarque, the author of "All Quiet on the Western Front," and a pretty American girl to whom he was introduced in Berlin.

The American, speaking in German, asked Remarque why he had never visited the United States. His answer was that he knew only a few sentences in English.

"What are the sentences?" inquired the girl.

Whereupon Remarque, speaking slowly in somewhat guttural English, said: "How do you do? I love you. Forgive me. Forget me. Ham and eggs, please."

"Sakes alive!" ejaculated the girl. "Why, with that vocabulary you could tour my country from Maine to California."

DOMINION WILL IMPROVE BEACH

Oak Bay Waterfront to Be Conditioned for Landing of Small Boats There

A gang of men is engaged by the municipality of Oak Bay in gathering together boulders along Oak Bay Beach preparatory to carrying out the cleaning up of that beach for small boats. This scheme is being carried out by the Dominion government.

Some time ago J. P. Ford, Dominion Government Public Works engineer, went into the matter of removing the rocks with the council. The scow into which the boulders will be loaded will not be available for a little time. The boulders will be loaded into the scow and taken to deep water, where they will be dumped.

An alternative proposition was discussed, as reported some time ago with Mr. Ford, by which the municipality would take the rock to McNeill Bay to be used in constructing the sea wall in contemplation there. If this is done the added cost of unloading at McNeill Bay will have to be borne by the municipality.

It is probable that Oak Bay will make arrangements to carry out this latter plan, if a reasonable price for the unloading of the rock is obtainable.

Political Leader Let Out by Board

REGINA, Aug. 28 (P)—M. J. Coldwell, Saskatchewan Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation leader, was dismissed from the staff of the Regina Public School Board by a motion passed at the regular meeting of the board last night, which terminates his contract September 30.

Reasons for the termination of the contract will be attached in the letter which the secretary will send to Mr. Coldwell. Until a year ago, Mr. Coldwell was principal of Thomson School here.

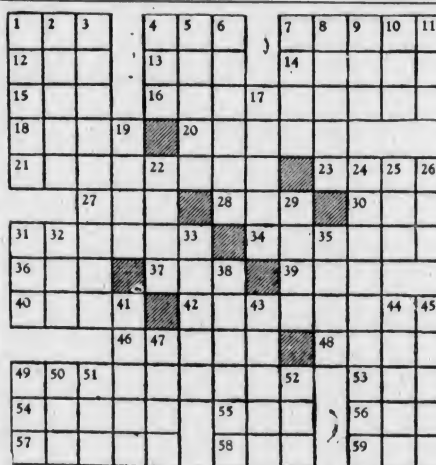

VANCOUVER STORE ROBBED

VANCOUVER, Aug. 28 (P)—Two armed bandits last night held up Z. Shimizu, proprietor of a confectionery store in the 2200 Block, Cambie Street, and L. Mori, a customer, and escaped with the cash register containing $7.
